"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

I can't think of anyone who hasn't wrestled with how to handle someone they know can't stand them. In today's Gospel, such a person is referred to as an "enemy."

The words Jesus spoke were contrary to common belief and cultural practice. In other words, if someone wronged you, you not only had the right to exact revenge, you were expected to do so! As humbling as it may be, we must admit that there remains a part in each one of us that feels and believes the same way, isn't there? We know we should feel differently, but when wronged, especially with no justification, it is so very difficult to "let go and let God."

It should come as no surprise to any of us that without the grace of God, we can never forgive; it's simply not in our make-up to do so. We are fallible human beings. Without His grace, we won't be able to do it, plain and simple. Rather than bringing us down in despair, we, as people of faith, should rejoice in this truth. We know that "with God, all things are possible."

Jesus promises us that if we acknowledge our need; acknowledge our need of His grace, we can be changed from a people seeking revenge to a people of faith! But it's still hard to do!

I think one way Jesus allows His grace to work within us in situations like these, is when we are able to recognize that when someone hurts us and continues to do so, they are saying much more about their hearts and their lives than whatever "the issue" may be on their minds. In other words, we may be the object of their derision or scorn, but it is they who are in need of healing. When you see someone scowling all the time; someone who never speaks a word of welcome, then you can be certain that their life contains much suffering; real or imagined. Rather than feel slighted, it's our call to pray for them. And this is sometimes much more difficult to do than it sounds, right? It is possible, however.

This weekend, let us ask the good God to strengthen our desire to be a people of forgiveness; not revenge.

There really is no need to remind you ... but I will (!) that this coming February 22nd, is ASH WEDNESDAY. MASSES WILL BE OFFERED AT NOON AND 7:00 P.M. Ash Wednesday and Lent are such beautiful reminders of the wonder of "beginning again." As the one Lenten hymn says: "Again We Keep This Solemn Fast." We should always look upon Lent as a golden opportunity to grow in the treasure that is our Catholic Faith and closer to Jesus, especially in the Holy Mass. We will again offer the Stations of the Cross each Friday of Lent beginning at 6:00 p.m.

I am also happy to announce that Fr. Jim Koressel will be with us the First Sunday of Lent to begin a three-night mission on the Holy Eucharist! As we have begun the three year "Eucharistic Revival," I thought what a great time to offer something on the Miracle that is the Holy Eucharist!

May God, Who has begun this good work in us, bring it to completion!

Father Michael Lutzel

Knights of Columbus Corner

Please join the Knights in praying the Rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet daily. You can join us on Facebook as well as the Mary Queen of Peace YouTube page. Council members also lead the Rosary prior to Saturday evening Mass and all Sunday Masses.

If anyone is interested in joining the Council or has questions regarding the Knights of Columbus or our activities, feel free to contact Mark Richardt at 317-354-5603 or by email rowdy251@yahoo.com.

Lenten Disciplines

Abstinence from meat is to be observed by all Catholics 14 years and older on Ash Wednesday and on all Fridays of Lent.

Fasting is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by all Catholics who are 18 years of age but not yet 59. Those who are bound by this may take only one full meal. Two smaller meals are permitted if necessary to maintain strength according to one's needs, but eating solid foods between meals is not permitted.

By the threefold discipline of fasting, almsgiving and prayer, the Church keeps Lent from Ash Wednesday until the evening of Holy Thursday, which is on April 18.

Family Promise

Check out the linked Friday Flash which provides updates on the Family Promise efforts to prevent/end homelessness in Hendricks County.
