"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

With this Fifth Sunday of Lent, the Church enters into "PASSIONTIDE." Gradually, the sacred is removed from our sight; the statues are covered as a reminder that Christ entered into the aloneness of His Passion. Our attention is being drawn to the holy of holies: the days of HOLY WEEK and the SACRED TRIDUUM.

Throughout this holy and graced-filled Lenten Season, our Father has been tugging at our hearts, pulling us out of our sinful behaviors and attitudes.

Today we heard what is perhaps one of the greatest miracles related by the Gospel writers. That account, the raising of Lazarus, is the third story of conversion that forms the foundation of this holy time of repentance.

We have witnessed Jesus call the Samaritan woman to conversion. We have seen the Lord heal the blind man and call others to conversion of heart and attitude. With today's proclamation of the raising of Lazarus, we hear the Lord Jesus summon us out of our own graves of complacency, apathy, and reluctance to a new way of life freed from the bonds of sin and selfishness.

We do not need to fear death. "O my people, I will open your graves and have you rise from them." Jesus wants us to believe this! A surprising note to the raising of Lazarus is that our Lord tells Martha that believers never die because eternal life begins now, the instant we believe. "I am the resurrection and the life. Do you believe this?"

Within a week, we will begin for the solemn observance of Holy Week and the Sacred Triduum. Perhaps we could name one "grave," one area of our own lives that needs an infusion of new life. Ask the Lord Jesus, Who raised Lazarus from the dead, to enter your life more and more as this holiest of holy times unfolds!

Please note in today's bulletin the entire Liturgical Schedule for Holy Week! Of all the celebrations of the liturgical year of the Church, this week, this Sacred Triduum, is the most honored and most important for us as Catholics. Make it a priority for you!

God's blessings upon us all!

Father Michael Leticia

Lenten Disciplines

Abstinence from meat is to be observed by all Catholics 14 years and older on Ash Wednesday and on all Fridays of Lent.

Fasting is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by all Catholics who are 18 years of age but not yet 59. Those who are bound by this may take only one full meal. Two smaller meals are permitted if necessary to maintain strength according to one's needs, but eating solid foods between meals is not permitted.

By the threefold discipline of fasting, almsgiving and prayer, the Church keeps Lent from Ash Wednesday until the evening of Holy Thursday, which is on April 6.
