"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"I came that you may have life and have it more abundantly." With these words, proclaimed in today's Gospel, the risen Lord summons us to ponder anew the mystery of sharing in His resurrected life.

To embrace this mystery is to embrace a life filled with both abundance and challenge. Far too many people think that following Jesus should mean that their lives run smoothly all the time, they have no anxieties or worries; basically, that everything is warm and fuzzy, sunshine and rainbows. Well, Easter surprise ... it isn't!

The only way to the kind of abundance Jesus speaks of is through the gateway He has shown us ... His total giving of Self for us. You know what that means ... "So I have done, you must do also."

As we continue to celebrate the glory that is Easter, let us ask the Lord today for the grace and strength to ponder His promise with renewed faith. Remember, two weeks ago we celebrated Divine Mercy Sunday. The awesome words Jesus gave to St. Faustina need to remain in our hearts and lips always: "Jesus, I Trust In You!"

The Good Shepherd sometimes needs to knock the sheep in the rump with his staff in order to get them to go where they need to go and hear what they need to hear. You know, sheep are rather dumb animals according to lore. Therefore, I don't believe any one of us would care to admit we are sheep ... but we are. We are not the Shepherd. We get ourselves into all sorts of trouble when we begin to think we are.

Each of us probably, even though we would never admit it, desires to be cared for; to be led. We like to think of ourselves as so independent but deep down we have the desire to belong; to have direction in life. Routines may vary, but they remain; they afford us a certain degree of schedule and continuity. Don't you agree that we all need this in life? We need to remember that both the Holy Mass, as well as the cross of Jesus, have two dimensions: vertical as well as horizontal. The vertical, the most important, is worship of God our Father through the Sacrifice of Jesus His Beloved Son, in the power of the Holy Spirit. The horizontal is our gathering together for that sacred privilege and offering support to one another.

I read something once that meant and means much to me: "I need no word; no sign. Help me Lord, to rest in belief."

May Jesus, our Good Shepherd; our Eucharistic Jesus, let us rest in Him!
