“God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men.”

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

This weekend, we celebrate the great Solemnity of the Ascension of Jesus. We hear the somewhat familiar “Jesus said to His disciples” in today’s Mass. Perhaps it is too often we listen to the words as if they were a bit of historical writing and not much more.

We might instead perk up our own ears when we hear these words. Instead of hearing “Jesus said to His disciples,” why not hear “Jesus says TO ME?”

That would be very fitting at this celebration of the Ascension. For His words to His disciples and to us, today call for a renewed dedication to sharing the truth and life that come to us from Jesus through His Bride, the Church. The world is hungry for this life and truth. It is our privilege to share this! In my humble opinion, we Catholics have been way too timid in bearing witness to our Lord and our Faith. Far be it that we be “labeled” as intolerant or bigoted for merely standing up for our Catholic values and teachings. What results is that many Catholics simply do not say anything; do not stand up for our Church or our Faith in Jesus Christ. Don’t you think it’s time for this to change? Who cares what the world says of us? Isn’t it more important to stand with Christ than to be “popular?”

Next weekend, our annual celebration of Easter concludes with the Solemnity of Pentecost. Jesus promised His infant Church that He would send an Advocate, One Who would remain with the Church for all ages to come.

The Holy Spirit comes that we might have life. Life in the Holy Spirit is a life that is dedicated to continuing the life and work of Christ Jesus on this earth. As the fifty-day celebration of Easter draws to a close next weekend, let us pray that the same Holy Spirit given the first Apostles at Pentecost, given us through the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation, will strengthen us in our own personal efforts to live a life of service and loyalty to Christ and His Church!

Pentecost is the perfect occasion to throw open the doors and announce the joy of Jesus Christ! The Lord remains in our midst! The Solemnity of the Ascension this weekend reminds us that our Lord Jesus has gone but remains. This is our faith; this is His Truth!

Next weekend, the Solemnity of Pentecost, Fr. Andy Syberg, who is on staff at Brute’ Seminary, will be with us to speak about the seminary, our fine young men there and the continued need to always pray for a generous increase in vocations to the Holy Priesthood! Welcome, Fr. Andy!

HEADS UP!! According to the roofers, the old skylight MAY BE removed beginning Monday, May 22nd, which corresponds to my being away with Fr. Jim! THEREFORE, IF THAT IS THE CASE, THERE WILL BE NO DAILY MASSES DURING THAT WEEK OF MAY 22-26! Hopefully, all scaffolding will be removed and things back in place for the weekend Masses of May 27-28 ... Pentecost! If not, a way will be found in order to offer Mass!!

We continue to pray for one another! “Come, Holy Spirit, fill the Hearts of Thy Faithful!”

Father Michael Lutz

Knights of Columbus Corner

Please join the Knights in praying the Rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet daily. You can join us on Facebook as well as the Mary Queen of Peace YouTube page. Rosaries prayed before all Saturday evening and Sunday morning Masses are led by members of your Knights’ Council.

Saint Suzanna’s asked the Council for help in funding the cost of tinting the streetside windows of their school to thwart any possible threat to the children. The cost of this would be $2,500. A very generous Brother Knight met the challenge and donated $2,500 towards this cause. We thank you so much!

We are working on our Scholarship and awards program for this year. Our next scheduled Bingo will be on Tuesday, June 13, 2023.

If anyone is interested in joining the Council or has questions regarding the Knights of Columbus or our activities, feel free to contact Mark Richardt at 317-354-5603 or by email rowdy251@yahoo.com.

Pray for Vocations

The church throughout the world prays for vocations. Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord for vocations to the priesthood and religious life?

- Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead.
- Encourage your children, grandchildren, or other young people to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister.
- Pray a rosary for more young men and women in our diocese to respond to God's call.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen
