"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Today, we find ourselves on the Fifth Sunday of Easter ... yes, the Easter celebration continues. In fact, it continues for fifty days!

The Lord Jesus has "called us out of darkness into His wonderful light." We hear Him do that very concretely in the Gospel today. He reassures us with these stirring words: "Do not let your hearts be troubled ... Have faith in God and faith in Me ... Where I am you will be ... I am the way, the truth, and the life ... Whoever believes in Me will do the works I do."

This is how the Church, through the actions of Her members (that's you and me), has "continued to spread" so that the number of disciples "increased daily."

This increase is what the risen Christ continues to offer the Church through the ministry of Her priests. This increase also continues through all the baptized. As you all have heard me say on numerous occasions, it is up to ALL of the parish to invite others into the Faith; to invite others to come home if they have left for whatever reason over the past few years.

I know what you might be thinking: "Oh, Father, I don't want to be pushy or judge others." Is it being pushy or judging to encourage others in your family or the parish family to return to the Holy Eucharist after a good Confession? What's more important to folks than their immortal soul? And no, "one place is NOT as good as another." We need to drop that fallacy and drop it quickly. Jesus Christ established ONE Church and through His Bride, the means unto eternal life ... the Seven Sacraments!

We need to get over the false humility which tells us, "Oh, don't bother, or let folks alone." Like I said, we INVITE, we do not judge, we do not condemn. But we do not "dumb down" truth either. Springtime is the perfect time to begin anew ... things are blooming, new life is all around us. What better metaphor for the new life Jesus offers us through His very Body and Blood in the Mass?

As anyone can see, the work progresses beautifully on the church roof and walls rehab! The projected finish time is now late May or June rather than September! As work progresses, we may have to call in some of you as volunteers to really give the church a thorough cleaning, dusting, etc.! When they remove the old skylight above the sanctuary, I will have to cancel Masses during that week due to everything being covered to prevent damage, etc. Let us grow together in Christ!

As we continue our Easter journey of faith, let us ask the Good Lord to bless our endeavors and bless those for whom we pray! God bless you all!

Father Michael Fritsch

Thank you MQP from 5th Grade

Thank you to Rev. Father Michael Fritsch and the members of our Parish family. With your help we assembled 150 individual care packages along with additional items to help the homeless. Each care package contains a pair of socks, toothbrush, toothpaste, Kleenex, ChapStick, a snack, and a handwritten note reminding the receivers that they are loved. The care packages are being delivered to Danielle Heitkamp at the Emmaus Ministry at St. John the Evangelist in Downtown Indianapolis.

Rummage Sale Thank You

The Rummage Sale committee wishes to thank you for all the donations, many drop off and sorting hours, working the floor or cashier during the sale, and packing up and Parish Hall clean-up help that made the 2023 Spring Rummage Sale a success. We were able to make about $2,200 which will go towards many good programs to help many people. We were able to share the donated items not only with the people who shopped the sale but also the groups receiving those items that did not sell: Birth Line, Danville Public Library, Family Promise, Wheeler Mission, etc. THANK YOU MQP!

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
