"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

This week's Gospel is a "tough love" experience. Jesus puts it right on the line. "Pick up your cross and follow Me." Not whenever you want to. Not when it's convenient and you don't have anything better to do. Not when you're on vacation or have some sort of activity that you simply can't miss. In my homily you heard me talk about 'cheap religion;' easy, convenient, no challenging of our consciences. Of false shepherds who cave to society and culture, so folks won't leave the parish or church. If that's what a person wants, fine, go find it and see how long it lasts. Go, see if it gains you eternal life. You know what? It won't. Oh, this type of faith-life may be less demanding in this world but that's about where it will end, in this world. Our Lord's words are pretty darn clear, especially today's Gospel. Remember, they are HIS words, not man's.

In these weird times, it is SO easy to lose track of time. It doesn't seem possible that in just a few days, we will be observing and celebrating the Fourth of July! It doesn't mean this any longer, given the changes schools have made, but in my day, we always felt a certain sense that "gosh, summer is almost over!" It wasn't of course; we almost never started until after Labor Day. Man, it still was hot! Annunciation had no AC, nor did Brazil High School. Most of us nearly collapsed but somehow, we made it. I always would roll my eyes when the sisters would tell us: "don't fan yourselves; it only makes you hotter!" Right, sister! Of course, they were dying also with their full habits. And, they had no AC upstairs in their convent either. Talk about troopers. Funny how looking back on days like that now mostly brings a smile to our face. We survived. No bike helmets, no seat belts, nothing covering all the outlets in the house, going barefoot almost all summer, even lying in the back window of the car! Our Moms telling us: "go out and play, come in for lunch, then come back in when it gets dark for supper."

The work continues on the kirche. They are making significant progress and while we do not have an exact date as yet, completion should be right around the corner! It will be nice to have everything cleaned up both inside and outside! There is still discussion regarding the two walls that suffered damage over the years due to leakage, resulting in the white stains, which I believe are lime or some sort of acid that bled through the brickwork.

Have a great week, everyone! God bless us all!

Father Michael Litzard
