"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

The Gospel passage we have focused on the reasons why the Lord Jesus came among us: to save the sinner and to call those same sinners into discipleship. So much for falling back on the old canard of "I'm not worthy," right?

This week, our Lord tells His disciples (and us of course) that this road of salvation and discipleship is not an easy one. So much for "warm and fuzzy," right?

If we truly live our Catholic faith, we will be faced with hardships. In a society that often values the accumulation of wealth and popularity above all else, it is often very difficult to swim against the tide.

We will endure inner divisions. In other words, our hearts will at times be torn on which way to go, what to believe, what to do. Others will ridicule our values; our solid dedication to life and the teachings of Jesus given us.

Even in the midst of hardship, St. Paul reminds us that the grace of God and the gracious gift that is Jesus Christ will overflow for us, giving us inner peace and joy. Now granted, we all know this is sometimes hard to experience but that's due more to our own lack of trust than the presence and offer of Jesus. Let's pray today that the message of Jesus both challenge and offer us hope, grace, and joy!

I want to share a true story about Eucharistic Adoration. At one parish, I was in the church and a little guy, I'd say around four, was there with his mom. All of a sudden, he got up, went to the step in front of the altar, and knelt down, gazing up at our Lord in the monstrance. I thought to myself, "THAT'S what it's all about!" If our parish does nothing else, instilling in our youth a true love for Jesus present to us in the Blessed Sacrament, will take care of all the rest. It was a beautiful example of the young being led to Jesus Who comes to us at each Mass and humbly remains in our midst in our Tabernacles, inviting and awaiting us to come to Him!

May Jesus, in the Most Blessed Sacrament, continue to bless you and our parish!

Pray for Vocations

The church throughout the world prays for vocations. Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord for vocations to the priesthood and religious life?

- Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead.
- Encourage your children, grandchildren, or other young people to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister.
- Pray a rosary for more young men and women in our diocese to respond to God's call.
