"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

In last week's readings, our Lord Jesus summoned us to develop the trait of humility. This week we are asked to develop the trait of receptivity.

Due to family obligations, work obligations, and the general busy-ness of our lives, often we do not take the time we need simply to allow Jesus to speak to us. The metaphors used in today's scripture readings remind us that we need to be like the fertile soil, awaiting the rain and nutrients that will enrich that soil.

For us, the "rain and nutrients" are the Word of God, the Sacraments of the Church, and the teaching of the Magisterium. Without these key necessities, we will not be the fertile soil, nor will we sprout new life and provide nourishment for ourselves and others. Perhaps today, we could ask ourselves two questions. One, how receptive am I to Jesus? Secondly, how can I become even more so in the future? As always, let us pray for one another on our journey of faith!

Isn't it wonderful ... we are right in the midst of the season of summer. Sure, we complain about the heat, but we also complain about the cold in winter! We have to complain about something!

Work continues on the church roof. They found a bit of rotted wood, which was not totally unexpected. At the time of this writing, I do not have a date for completion, but it is certainly coming along nicely. Once the roof is completed, work must start on repairs needed to drywall in the sacristies as well continue to work on the block walls from the damage done over the years from water leaking down and through the blocks. Believe me, I will be happy when things are wrapped up!

Many thanks to Phil Schneider along with Brian and Brody Saylor who helped clean up the old fire pit behind the garage! It had not been used for 5-6 years, at least, and was covered with weeds, benches rotting out of the ground, etc. The pit is still usable, but folks will need to bring chairs if they want to use it. It is good to have for all the branches and things that fall from the trees after storms. Thanks, again, guys! You earned points out of Purgatory!

On Friday, July 28th, the parish will offer a drive through "FRIDAY KNIGHT COOKOUT" event! As with our Lenten fish fries, it will be a free will offering. There will be more in the bulletin about the event. It will be nice to offer something during the summer. Rain or shine, the event will go on! Mark your calendars!

God's blessings to you all!

Father Michael Suter
