"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

These several Sundays of parables continue this weekend as Jesus teaches three final lessons about the kingdom of heaven. The first two, the parables of the treasure and the pearl, point to the inestimable value of the kingdom and, by extension, our Catholic Faith.

The third, about the fish and nets, is similar to last weekend's parable about the weeds in the field. It focuses our attention on the separation of the good from the evil at the end of time. Jesus' question to His disciples ... "Do you understand all these things?" is directed to US as well.

The goal of our Lord in preaching the parables has been to bring us closer to the very nearness and presence of His kingdom. That kingdom is not something up in the sky or down the road for which we idly wait.

In the sacrament of Baptism, we are called to be active builders of His kingdom. As people drawn together and united by the Holy Eucharist, we are called to bring His Eucharistic presence to our world, in order to give the world a glimpse of the fullness of that kingdom that is to come!

Work continues very nicely on our church. While I do not have a definite date as yet, I look for things to be wrapped up by mid-August. There will remain repairs needed in the two sacristies where the rain and leakage has damaged the walls and ceiling. I must admit, it will be nice to be on my porch and not looking at the scenic view of the portable toilet!

Have a "prayer-full" week, everyone!

Father Michael Lutz

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray; and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, Satan and
all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen
