"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Each week we have the privilege to gather in this sacred place we call St. Mary, Queen of Peace to celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. There is a statistic that someone put together that says that two out of every four people who attend some sort of worship liturgy on a regular basis in this country are hurting in some way. This means that if you happen not to be 'hurting' in some way this week, chances are that two of the people sitting near you are.

One reason many people attend Mass is to bring the cares and worries to the altar of God in the hope that the Lord will somehow lift them from their shoulders. It's not best reason to attend Mass, but it's a good one.

Today's Gospel is a wellspring of comfort and strength. As we depart from Mass today, let us pray that the Lord will give rest to those who are weighed down. Pray that all of us will find rest in the Lord Jesus whose yoke is easy and whose burden is light!

It is hard to believe but last weekend on July 2nd, I began my ninth year here at St. Mary! Where does the time go? Danville and our parish are both great places to be, but YOU all make them truly what they are. I look around and see how much the parish has accomplished over these past years. One only needs to look at the beautiful new addition, the new church roof, the addition of a beautiful guest room and full bath on the first floor of the rectory, and the growing number of folks coming to St. Mary's, to see that our parish is alive and doing well. I thank you for that!

Enjoy the "good old summertime!" God's blessing be upon us all!
