"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"What profit would there be for a man to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" This question, posed by Jesus in today's Gospel, is without a doubt one of the critical questions for us in the twenty-first century.

A great temptation of us is to fall prey to the notion that the accumulation of wealth, possessions and power is the goal to be achieved above all else. When you stop to think about it, having the blessing of being able to have things in this world, is just that; a blessing. Yet, at the same time, what really controls our lives? How generous are we with our time, talent and treasure? What legacy do we really leave behind? The old saying: "I've never seen a hearse pulling a U-Haul" certainly is true!

Perhaps saying "no" once in awhile to something that I don't really need in my life is a good thing. It seems that this is what Jesus is trying to get across to us when He asks us to deny ourselves and take up our crosses. The very idea of doing that sometimes leaves us rather uncomfortable. For in our age, the cross is certainly not what we are told is important or for that matter, necessary in order to follow Christ. I think it's important for us to pray for one another; to pray for strength and courage to do the will of Jesus; to do all we can through Him, with Him and in Him!

Tickets continue to be on sale for our PARISH OKTOBERFEST ON SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 30TH! ALL TICKETS MUST BE PRE-PURCHASED. COME, HAVE A GREAT TIME!

God bless you all!

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray; and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, Satan and
all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen
