"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

In today's Mass we hear "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." We've heard that many times before. Sadly it seems that it goes in one ear and out the other. It's always good for us to be reminded of this "great commandment."

We don't have to look very far to see that this great commandment simply has not taken root in our hearts. What are we called to do? First, we can heed this commandment in our marriages, families, parish and school. Second, we can acknowledge the truth of the great commandment. It comes down to basic respect and Christian charity and kindness. It sounds so very simple but amazingly, we seem to have a hard time putting it to practice. At times, it boggles the mind doesn't it?

Let us welcome Christ Jesus in this holy place and look to Him to be our strength as we strive to live the great commandment each day of our lives! Perhaps you could name one opportunity you will have in the coming week to respond to the commandment to "love your neighbor as yourself."

Our boys and girls have returned to Religious Education Class. It's a perfect opportunity for us all to pray for them. And, to pray for all parents and catechists as they commit themselves once more to the tremendous heritage we share in the Catholic Church!

If you haven't already purchased your tickets for our OKTOBERFEST-2023 Hurry! Volunteers are working very hard to make sure everyone has a great time! See you there!

God's blessings upon us all!

Father Michael Litzard

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

Saint Meinrad Archabbey and Seminary & School of Theology

For many years, the Archdiocese of Indianapolis has benefited from the ministry of those formed at Saint Meinrad Archabbey, Seminary and School of Theology.

This weekend our parish will learn more about their important work from a monk of Saint Meinrad.

In our archdiocese, 108 active and retired priests, 69 permanent deacons, and 556 lay ministers attended Saint Meinrad. In addition, countless high school students were formed in faith and prepared for liturgical ministry through Saint Meinrad's "One Bread, One Cup" program.

After this weekend, Archabbot Kurt Stasiak, OSB, will send a letter asking for your financial support to continue their efforts. Please consider partnering in their work.

As always, please continue to pray for more vocations to the priesthood, permanent diaconate, vowed religious life, and lay ministry.

To learn more about Saint Meinrad and to submit prayer requests, text "Prayer" to 800-682-0988 or visit www.saintmeinrad.edu/prayer.
