1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

As this Year of Grace, 2023, nears its completion with the great Solemnity of Christ The King in just a few short weeks, once more our readings at Mass zero in on true humility and gratitude; both of which you've heard me say more than once, are pretty good definitions of one another. Jesus promises us today: "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." In a nutshell, which one shall we choose? The question beautifully dovetails into the great Feasts we celebrated just a few days ago: ALL SAINTS AND ALL SOULS.

I truly believe each one of us can think of folks in our lives that have mirrored the words of Jesus. Their lives have provided us with models of Catholic Faith in which to follow and live. Growing up, I remember a sweet older couple that came faithfully to daily Mass. They always brought their well-worn Missals with them. On the playground, we would watch them drive up in what is now a classic 1955 Chevy(!) and we would remark in our second grade knowledge, "wow, those folks are saints!" They were just common older folks who raised their children in the practice of the faith and would even pick up my one grandma so she could attend daily Mass as well. Mom? Well, she was home smoking her cigs and doing laundry!

I try to watch the budget very closely but as you all know, at times things can be tight. St. Mary is a wonderfully generous parish! We have gained from our ancestors in the faith as well as from the Archdiocese. Now, it is up to us to continue their fine, Catholic example of generosity and gratitude! Remember, also, it is time for our commitment for this year's UNITED CATHOLIC APPEAL throughout the Archdiocese. Our goal this year is $47,757. Each parish has benefited in some fashion over the years from the Annual Appeal, our parish did when building our current church.

May God continue to bless you and our parish!
