*"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."
1 Thessalonians 2:4*

+Dear Friends,

The parable about the Kingdom of God presented by our Lord in today's Gospel includes this invitation: "Tell those invited...everything is ready; come to the feast."

We received this invitation on the day of our baptism into Christ and His Holy Church. In a sense, our entire Catholic life here on earth is like a long procession from our mother's womb to the place awaiting us at the heavenly banquet.

So much seems to get in our way as we proceed along this processional route, doesn't it? Sometimes we forget that we were even invited in the first place! Worse still, sometimes we turn our backs, like those in the parable who ignored the invitation.

And yet, our Father is always there, as is that divine invitation. As we depart from the church today, let us remember that the invitation still stands. And, that holy invitation does require an RSVP!

Beginning this weekend, a basket will be placed in the vestibule with "All Souls' Day Envelopes" for you to use this year as we prepare to observe ALL SAINTS' DAY and the FEAST OF ALL SOULS' DAY. Simply write the names of your beloved dead on the envelope, include a stipend for Mass and return no later than Sunday, October 29th to be inscribed in our "Book of Remembrance" which will remain in the sanctuary the month of November as we, in a very special way, remember and pray for the Poor Souls and our own beloved gone before us. The stipends will provide for Masses for the "Poor Souls" throughout the coming year. The Mass schedule for the Holy Day and Feast Day is: OCTOBER 31-6:00PM, NOVEMBER 1st IS NOON. ALL SOUL'S DAY-5:30 PM.

God's blessings be upon you all!

Father Michael Suted

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray; and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen
