"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." None of us needs to be reminded about the fundamental meaning of this exhortation of our Lord. Nor, do we need reminded about what it means to "repay to Caesar." It's the "repay to God" part that somehow gets us into trouble.

Jesus was telling His disciples that, in the earthly realm, God has given and provided authorities and governments over us. And, just as we benefit (hopefully!) from these governments, we, in turn, owe the government our loyalty and support in all areas of just, moral law. The emphasis here being on "just and moral" law. A law that rejects the respect of life and dignity of each human person, requires a collaborative effort to be repealed; all within the framework of government. Again, I believe most people have a good grasp of this.

Now then, what about the "repay to God" part of the equation? Take a deep breath. You have just experienced once again what it means to "repay to God." It was God Who created us. To give back to God means to give our lives back to Him. This we do in our attitudes, actions and spirituality.

Living life in this way is the way of the good steward who sees everything as a reflection of our Father's total generosity of love and justice given and shown us through His Only Begotten Son, Jesus Christ.

In the vestibule, you will continue to find a basket on the small table with this year's ALL SOULS' ENVELOPES. You are invited to list the names of your beloved dead and return no later than Sunday, October 29th. (Please print the names in order that they might be easily transcribed...thank you!) These names will then be inscribed in our parish Book of Remembrance. The Mass stipend is $10. All of these stipends will be used for Masses for the "Poor Souls" throughout November and the following months. As the Book of Maccabees tells us: "it is a good and holy thing to pray for the dead." Our beloved are always with us through the Communion of the Saints. As we pray for them, may they in turn pray for us!

God's blessings to you all!

Father Michael Leticia

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray; and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen
