Saint Michael the Archangel,
defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray; and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, Satan and
all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

How appropriate that we hear the continued Gospel story of the journey to Emmaus on this Third Sunday of Easter! The two disciples of Jesus were in the depths of despair following the crucifixion of Jesus. As they made their way from the Holy City to Emmaus, they simply couldn't believe that Jesus was gone. Note well that they were on their way from Jerusalem. They were not sticking around to face possible repercussions for being followers of Jesus.

And so, how does our Lord choose to reveal Himself to these two frightened disciples? He chose the exact manner in which He reveals Himself to us today...and to our first group of boys and girls making their First Holy Communion today, in the Word and Holy Eucharist! CONGRATULATIONS TO Liam Thomas Brothers, Arlen Goldwyn Hansen, Camilla Josephine Johnson, Quinn Kay-Ann Miller, Jensen William Joe Pfister, Brielle Jaye Schmitt and Grant Donald Schmitz.

Today, we have the benefit of two thousand years of proven history on our side when we begin to lose hope; historical proof that the two disciples did not have. We stand on their shoulders in Eucharistic hope and truth! We know, without a doubt, that Jesus Christ remains in our midst in the Most Blessed Sacrament, always inviting, always awaiting us to come to Him.

If honest with ourselves, we will freely admit to numerous times of doubt, fear and questioning. It is part of human nature; it is a part of faith. I have said before and I shall say again, having doubts does not equal having no faith. On the contrary, it indicates a willingness to surrender and believe; to trust. As a people, we are so accustomed to having almost instantly in our lives, when we face something like faith and belief, we are at a loss are we not? I hate to sound like an old person (which I qualify for) but thinking back in our personal lives as well as history, it was easier to believe. Why so? Well, things took time; work, projects, gaining knowledge, researching a paper or assignment, building relationships. It was almost guaranteed we were used to waiting in times of prayer for "answers," right? As life continues to race faster and faster, for which, on some occasions is a good thing, it will take more patience in our prayer lives. Again, it is a part of life; for good or bad. God will provide!

On a completely different topic...I am looking for a couple items for the rectory and myself. Before I go searching thrift stores, does anyone in the parish have a maple dining room hutch or a bedroom dresser with mirror you wish to sell? The rectory now has three guest rooms and thus a dresser would be nice. The hutch would be for me down the line. If you do, just let me know before I ask Anna to help. She is the queen of finding bargains! I thank you!

Have a wonderful week, everyone!
