14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him? What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands!" - Mk 6:2

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray; and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, Satan and
all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Let's take a look at the readings for this weekend's Mass. They offer us an ironic twist on this past Independence Day.

The people of Jesus' "native place" had begun to measure Him based on their own inadequate preconceptions and pre-suppositions. In other words, even before Jesus spoke or acted, some had already closed their minds and hearts to His word and presence....not totally unlike our own day, right?

Because they were filled with contempt right off the bat, they ruled out even the remote possibility of experiencing the "mighty deeds of the Lord." How much better are those who, like St. Paul, approach the Lord from the perspective of the "thorn" in their flesh, even taking comfort in their weakness. For "power is made perfect in weakness."

This brings me to a point in an article written by Fr. Peter John Cameron, OP. Father wrote: "What God desires is our trust, our dependence, our reliance, our certainty, our surrender. God loves to be acknowledged by nothingness. In the nothingness that we offer to God, the Everything He gives appears ever more glorious. Our greatness and freedom derive from this dependence."

All of this shows our fundamental human desire to give God something. Sacrifice consists in our becoming totally receptive toward God and in letting ourselves be completely taken over by Him. The point of the bread and wine that are presented at each Mass is not for them to remain bread and wine but for them rather to become the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ. "We hope that what we offer will be completely taken over by God...will be filled with His Presence. Our gifts symbolize ourselves."

As Catholics and as Christians, we gather this weekend, indeed at each offering of the Holy Mass, to celebrate our total dependence upon Jesus Christ and His Gift of the Holy Eucharist!

Let us go forth from this Mass with a renewed vision that true freedom is only possible within the arms of total dependence on Jesus Christ and His Bride, the Church! For it is "through Him, with Him and in Him" that we live and move and have our being. Now that is cause for rejoicing!

Just a little "heads up"....Beginning soon during this month of July, our parish parking lot is going to be resealed and re-striped. This means of course, that we will be very limited in our usage during that time. I will do my best to make sure that you all know where it is permissible to park and on what days. At this time, I do not foresee the need to cancel any daily Masses or activities however, this may need to be adjusted.

God bless you all!

Father Michael Lutz

SACRED SILENCE

....Can you hear it?

Mass has ended, friends meet in the narthex or the halls of Mary, Queen of Peace Parish to enjoy one another's company, to share how God has influenced their week, and to allow others who would enjoy more "one-on-one" time with God to continue to sit and pray in silence, in Jesus' presence. Thank you so much for helping to provide that Sacred Silence for our fellow parishioners who are still connecting with God through prayer at the end of each Mass. Please be that example for others, as we deepen our relationship with God and our community. So much can be communicated through the beauty of Sacred Silence.

Volunteers Needed for the National Eucharistic Congress

The National Eucharistic Congress (NEC) is in need of several hundred volunteers for the upcoming event taking place in downtown Indianapolis July 17-21, 2024. There are many full-time and part-time volunteer opportunities available that we are asking for your assistance in helping to fill. The scope of the daily commitment for full time dedicated volunteers is from Tuesday, July 16 at 9:00am until Sunday, July 21 at 2:00pm. (This includes a full day of volunteer training prior to the kick-off of the event.) For those who are unable to serve the entire time, daily part-time volunteer shifts in a variety of roles are open. The greatest area of need is full-time volunteer ushers. This role entails greeting guests at sessions either in Lucas Oil Stadium or the other large programming halls at the Convention Center. The benefit of this job is that ushers get to hear much of the Congress programming for free! This is a great opportunity for young adults, college students, retirees, or anyone who is looking for an affordable way to be a part of this historic event. For more information on volunteer opportunities, and to register as a volunteer, please visit <https://www.eucharisticcongress.org/volunteer>.

Eucharistic Congress Carpool

Hendricks County Parishes are working together to arrange rides to the Eucharistic Congress July 17-21, 2024 in Indianapolis. If you are planning on attending and would like to be included, please call Helen Corbitt at 317-626-5963 or email mjcorbitt@comcast.net with the days that you are registered and would like transportation. The Congress is a few weeks away!

WOMEN'S CARE CENTER

BABY SHOWER!

The Friends of St. Anthony will be conducting a Baby Shower for the Women's Care Center during the month of July. The Women's Care Center provides free, confidential counseling, support and education for pregnant women. (Abortions are not provided.) It also is the state's largest pregnancy center which helps empower women to choose life, have healthier pregnancies and receive support from cradle to kindergarten. Each year, thousands of women walk through their doors in Indianapolis. 1 in 6 babies born in Indianapolis begin at Women's Care Center and it is through our support that these moms are loved and their babies nurtured.

We will be collecting brand new baby items and clothing for newborns through 5T, as well as baby wipes and diapers sizes 3,4,5, and 6. Also, included below is an Amazon link of the most popular items used for the Crib Club baby program. https://www.amazon.com/hz/wishlist/ls/9YPJKT716NNM?ref=wl_share

All items may be dropped off in the blue bin located in the Narthex by July 28th. If you have any questions, please contact Beth Simpson at 303-506-3454 or by email at: oldbluechair9102627@gmail.com

On behalf of the babies currently expected to be born to the moms supported by the Women's Care Center, we thank you for your support.

The Parishioners of St. Mary Queen of Peace extend a warm welcome to our newest member:
