1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

A VERY HAPPY AND BLESSED MOTHERS' DAY TO ALL OF OUR MOMS!! And of course we honor and love the Mother of us all...the Blessed Virgin Mary! How appropriate that at 10:30 Mass we celebrate May Crowning. For those of us who attended a Catholic school, how well we remember May Crowning each year. The nuns would practice with us again and again to make sure we processed from the school to the church, class by class, all singing the Litany of the Blessed Mother. One lucky girl from eighth grade would be chosen to crown the statue of Mary while a little First Communion girl would carry the crown. Believe it or not, my Mom and both of her older sisters all had the honor of crowning the statue over the years at Annunciation. I don't think that was ever matched by another set of sisters!

"My sheep hear My voice; I know them, and they follow Me." Very appealing and comforting isn't it? Or, is it? The words of Jesus offer us a unique challenge.

We all recognize certain TV shows or movies from their theme music. Who among us of the middle-aged variety, doesn't remember the music of "I Love Lucy" or "Hogan's Heroes"? How about theme music from "Jaws"? The same holds true for the younger folks among us; every generation or age group can relate.

We know the familiar melodies of favorite songs we hear on the radio also. How many of you remember the theme of your junior or senior prom? When you were dating someone special you no doubt had "your" song, right?

All of this is important to call to mind when we reflect on today's Gospel. Given the cacophony of music, sound and voices in our lives, just how easy is it for us to listen to sound of our Good Shepherd? I submit to you that it is difficult. But, that's the message of this weekend's liturgies; listening AND acting upon the call of Jesus Christ! We hear of those in the Book of Revelation who are singing the praises of the Lamb, those are the ones that have listened with all their hearts and souls to voice of Jesus and are with Him eternally. That's our call and that is our privilege. What we have heard from Him; we must share. We pray for one another that it may always be so!

I want to give an update on the proposed Pilgrimage to Switzerland, Germany and Austria in mid October. Thus far we have 11 folks signed up to go. That means we only need 9 more in order to make the trip happen. If you are interested, please sign up NOW! Contact Tekton directly. Final payment for the pilgrimage is to be paid by the first of July. Again, sign up NOW if you would like to go with us! Ya, sure!

May Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament, bless us all!
May we always receive Jesus with wonder and awe!

God bless you all!

Father Michael Lutz
