Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.” - Mt 16:18-19

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Today the Church celebrates and focuses our attention on Saint Peter and Saint Paul. These were the men whose lives were marked by great failures and great successes. These are perhaps the two most important Apostolic pillars (humanly speaking) upon which the Church has been built.

St. Peter, the denier who became the first Pope and Vicar of Christ Jesus and St. Paul, the persecutor of the Church who became the Apostle to the Gentiles, are together celebrated as inseparable.

These were men whose sins were among the most tragic, making their conversions all the more remarkable. St. Paul is offered to us as the model teacher; one that suffered, doubted and "ran the good race" of faith until his death for Jesus Christ. Throughout this coming year, we are invited to revisit the Pauline Corpus of Epistles and to reflect upon our own witness and willingness to evangelize. Each of us is called through our baptism to bring others to Jesus and His Church; built upon the rock of St. Peter.

Let the examples of these two great Saints inspire us to turn to Christ, even when we feel that our own sins are the most tragic of all. Sts. Peter and Paul were men who turned away from sin and became faithful to Christ Jesus and His Church. How can we do the same?

As we all realize, this will my final "Pastor's Column" for our St. Mary, Queen of Peace parish bulletin. On Wednesday, July 2nd, you know I retire from the duties of Pastor of St. Mary's. From the time I first became a pastor at St. Paul's in Greencastle, I have enjoyed writing my columns each weekend. It has offered me the opportunity to share some reflections on the readings for the weekend, as well as events happening in the parish. I hope you have gathered some "food for thought" from them. I wish to thank you ALL for your support, love and encouragement over these past eleven years. We have accomplished so much together and I pray that good things continue. It has been an absolute joy being your Pastor! I love Danville and that is one reason I have chosen to retire in this area. A new chapter now begins for St. Mary's. I pray that you all continue on the road to strengthening a great sense of worship and spirit in our parish! I ask for your prayers as I begin this latest chapter in my life. Rest assured of my prayers for you as well. God bless you all!

May the good God's continued blessings be upon you all, our nation and our Church. May Mary Immaculate, our national Patroness, intercede on our behalf for God's continued grace as the Fourth of July is celebrated this week!

Dear Father Mike,

United with Our Lord, we give thanks to you for sharing your love of the Eucharist, for teaching us and being a great shepherd for the past 11 years. We celebrate your retirement and 40 years as a priest, and we will miss you very much.

With love,

Your parish family

“All the good works in the world are not equal to the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass because they are the works of men: but the Mass is the work of God. Martyrdom is nothing in comparison for it is but the sacrifice of man to God; but the Mass is the sacrifice of God for man.” - St. John Vianney, Cure d’Ars

“The Eucharist is the sacrament of love: it signifies love, it produces love. - St. Thomas Aquinas
