SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 2026 | OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

November 22, 2026
Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe
Matthew 25:31-46

I remember middle school baseball tryouts. A friend of mine, Robert, was trying to make the team to please his father, but his heart wasn't in it. He was lackadaisical and unenergetic. When the final cut-list was announced, and his name wasn't on it, he was relieved. He realized the coach was not insulting him but essentially telling him, "Bobby, this only works if you actually want to play ball." I was saddened he'd miss out on the fun, but I knew it was best. Putting Robert onto the team would not have been kindness. It would have made him miserable.

Jesus speaks to us today about his identity as our King and Judge. He separates those who inherit the kingdom from those who do not. The King explains, "Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:40). His judgment hinges on willingness to participate in love. Heaven is not a prize imposed at the end of life. It is a life freely chosen and engaged. Hell is not a destination prepared for human beings, but a terrible and sad acknowledgment of an opting out which God never intends for us.

Jesus' role as judge proclaims to us: "Heaven only works if you actually want to love." How do we know if we want it? How we serve the hungry, the sick, the imprisoned, and the forgotten. These acts of mercy are not arbitrary tests. They are the very shape of divine life. There is no better game to play than this. We ought to begin playing it right now. The King will come to judge us.
— Father John Muir

Inspiration of the Week

At the end of time, the ones who neglected God will claim ignorance. "We never saw you!" they'll insist. But God is everywhere, making Himself known in every time and place. We can see Him, respond to Him — or we can look the other way. Which will we choose?

Sharing the Gospel

Share food with the hungry. Give clothes to the poor. Visit people who are sick. Share the good news about Jesus with people who have made bad choices. Jesus came to forgive them. God will see the loving things you do. He will reward you one day in heaven.

Blessing for a Thanksgiving

Dear Lord,
We thank You for the gifts of the season.
We ask Your blessing upon this Thanksgiving meal.
Bless each of us gathered,
hold the prayers we carry within us,
anoint our conversations and company with Your light and hope. Amen.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading

As for you, my sheep, says the Lord GOD,
I will judge between one sheep and another,
between rams and goats. (Ez 34:17)

Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Ps 23)

First Reading Question

Ezekiel reveals God's plan to personally examine and shepherd those sheep in his flock who are scattered, lost, or sick. Do you have any family members or friends who could use your help in the coming days?

Second Reading

When everything is subjected to him,
then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all. (1 Cor 15:28)

Second Reading Question

Paul teaches that Jesus' bodily resurrection from the dead is actually the beginning of God's plan to subject everything to Himself and "be all in all." How do you think we ought to be living into the future God is building?

Gospel

"When the Son of Man comes in his glory,
and all the angels with him,
he will sit upon his glorious throne,
and all the nations will be assembled before him.
And he will separate them one from another,
as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats." (Mt 25:31-32)

Gospel Question

Jesus speaks to his disciples about the final judgment of all nations at the end of time before the Parousia, the return of Jesus. How are you serving those on the margins of society?

Confidence, in its virtuous aspect, describes the hope that man has in himself when he is under God's care and inviting the direction of the Holy Spirit. Its very name is derived from the Latin noun fides, which means faith.

Confidence is connected with the virtue of fortitude, but also with the virtue of hope, writes St. Thomas Aquinas, who quoted the Book of Job: "And you shall be secured, because there is hope; you shall look round you and lie down in safety" (Job 11:18).

It is confidence that Abraham exhibits when he petitions God to spare the righteous of Sodom (Genesis 18:25). Though he knows he is "only dust and ashes," Abraham has learned enough of the ways of God to be able to articulate them in prayer. This is the same confidence we have when we pray, entrusting our needs to God (1 John 5:14).

Prayer Request

We ask that the Lord heal them and restore them to good health. For all those living in assisted living and nursing homes also Susan Baker, Dan Brennan, Anita Burgess, Patty Edwards, Bill Fattic, Marge Goecke, Dick Griffith, Donna Haas, Lynn Hansen, Sven Hansen, Marilyn Harrigan, Cathy Jeffries, Jacqueline Judd, Tom Kerkman, Toby Kult, Kelsee Kushner, Bob Lawson, Debbie Little, Karl Lohan, Mary Lovejoy, Margaret Mahoney, Anthony Martinez, Michael Gerard Moyer, Mary Mueller, Patty Price, Mark Roahrig, Norbert Schott, Loren Schubert, Lowell Schubert, Candace Schurter, Chris Shafer, Rick Shafer, Joe Sluss, Debbie Such, Marci Thomas and Leon Van.

Support for Parents of Estranged Children

Do you have an adult child who has chosen 'no contact' with you, and has denied you contact with your grandchildren?

You are invited to gather, in community, to support one another. We will share and learn coping and forgiveness skills, and pray for each others children.

Next Meeting:
St. Susanna Gathering Space
4:00pm on Monday, November 23rd.

How do you explain "Real Presence" to children?

The first Communion class is filled with excitement to the point of bursting! They are just awestruck by every new thing they learn about Jesus. Their enthusiasm is contagious as they rattle off the names of the things in church, the vessels and vestments used at Mass, and the names of their pastors and priests. Of course, they know Christ can do anything because he's God. He comes to us in holy Communion because he loves us so much that he wants to be with us. And he comes to us in the form of bread and wine. We really receive him in the Eucharist.

Sometimes it is easier to explain this to children than to adults. Their faith and trust in Jesus is not limited by the questions and doubts that often come with the question of how he does it. Rather, they focus on the question "why," and the answer is something they can easily grasp: love. Christ wants to be with us because he loves us. Nothing is purer in truth or in faith. Not even the theological explanation of transubstantiation, or philosophical reasoning or symbolic references, come close. Christ takes on the form of bread and wine to be simple and approachable, so that no one is afraid or turned away. His love for us is complete and total. We try to love him the same way in return. For a child, it is simple. For us adults, we keep trying. "Unless you turn and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven" (Mt 18:3).

Mary, Queen of Peace is excited to announce a special Christmas Eve Nativity Pageant, and we warmly invite all children of the parish to participate in this cherished event. It's a wonderful opportunity for children to bring the beautiful story of Christmas to life and create lasting holiday memories. To confirm your child's participation and help us with the necessary preparations, please scan the QR Code provided and complete the registration form by December 6, 2026. We look forward to celebrating this joyous occasion with you and your family!
